but see - Willie will not stand a word of reproof or suggestion from anyone so far as I know, & yet some one must stop his going over there.
Gregory stopped him before, but the effect was rather terrible for this household.

Do you think we might have went to Jones? This may be a foolish thought but I can think of no one else. Of course he will not listen to me & I fear that even you would ^{hardly} have effect.

Shall I go to Mr. Watson?

It is the old fear, that some thing may be planted & just now with this ahead we certainly do not want that.

I may be in town on Monday & if so will call you up - In the meantime send me a word of advice.

Always
sincerely
Frances and I feel
